Hever Castle and Garden are set in the beautiful Kent countryside. The splendid rooms hold an important collection of Tudor paintings, fine furniture, tapestries, antiques and two prayer books inscribed and signed by Anne Boleyn herself. Costumed figures in the Long Gallery illustrate key events in Anne's time at the castle.

Today, much of what you see is the result of the remarkable efforts of William Waldorf Astor. A section of the Castle is dedicated to the Astor family and the Edwardian period. The castle has award-winning gardens set in 125 acres of glorious grounds, including an Italian Garden, a Tudor Garden and a magnificent Rose Garden.
